Legal Practice Manager, Bendigo

Full Time

Do you want to lead the legal practice of one of Australia's most respected and innovative community legal centres? Are you a dynamic and experienced lawyer, passionate about social justice and able to lead a diverse and growing team of practitioners and programs? Do you want to embrace the challenge of managing excellent service provision, compliance and risk management?

The Bendigo based Loddon Campaspe Community Legal Centre (a division of Advocacy & Rights Centre Ltd) delivers a range of legal assistance services (casework, education and policy) across North and Central Victoria, including the Goulburn Valley.

LCCLC is seeking a Legal Practice Manager to provide leadership to the legal practice, ensuring quality and strategic legal services, staff supervision and development and program innovation. The role is diverse and demanding, requiring a legal practitioner with excellent communication skills, time-management, creativity and drive.

Just 1 ¼ hours from Melbourne by freeway and regularly serviced by train via Kyneton and Castlemaine, LCCLC is based in one of regional Victoria's most desirable localities, featuring excellent schools, health facilities and cultural experiences.
